Mr. Goldsmith says Chairman Stennis is in Mississippi and visits his office there daily so there should be no difficulty in the White House getting in touch him if they wish about an announcement regarding the Director. He does not know when Stennis may be back in Washington, but points out that he often returns unexpectedly.

JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 6 December 1972

25X1 1. [] Bill Woodruff, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee, called this morning to say that former Senator William Saltonstall was in town a few days ago and asked him to assist him in some work he is doing in preparing his memoirs. In this connection Woodruff would like us to prepare a short paper for him on the way CIA funds are appropriated. In this paper he would like references to the debate on the Mansfield resolution in 1956 and the more recent debate on Senator McCarthy's resolution to authorize the Foreign Relations Committee to look into certain CIA activities. Woodruff feels the Senate's action on these two items constitute a "vote of confidence" for the system as it was originally established by Senator Saltonstall and Senator Hayden. Woodruff would like the paper by early next week.

25X1 2. [] Mr. Thuermer called and advised us of a telephone call he received from Stuart Madden, on Jack Anderson's staff. The thrust of Madden's call was that a copy of the Agency's letter to Representative Moorhead concerning our policy with respect to freedom of information had been made available to them. Mr. Thuermer is writing a memorandum on this and is sending us a copy.

25X1 6. [] Had lunch with Bill Woodruff, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee. He said he saw Bob Jantzen only briefly, socially, during his stay in Honolulu with Chairman McClellan.

Woodruff asked if there was anything I could tell him about speculations in the press that Mr. Helms was leaving the Agency. I told him there was nothing I could give him on this but, as he well knew, if something was in the offing any announcement on it would have to come from the White House. It was interesting that during lunch General "Hap" Arnold's son dropped by our table and asked Woodruff if there was any truth to the rumor that he might be accepting a position in the Pentagon. Woodruff said there were rumors to this effect, but said he thought he had the "quietest telephone in town."

I brought Woodruff up-to-date on a number of current intelligence items that have developed since 14 November.

7. (Secret - GLC) Messrs. Maury and [] met with Ed Braswell, Chief Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee. He asked about the press stories saying that Mr. Helm's would be leaving the Agency and we told him that we could not confirm these stories but as he well knew the President was making a number of changes in his Administration and all announcements on these changes were coming from the White House. Braswell commented that if Mr. Helms does leave as Director we can expect a certain amount of "flack" from the Hill, especially from people like Senator Symington.

We asked Braswell whether he expected Chairman Stennis to be in town any time soon and he said the Chairman's travel between Mississippi and Washington was completely unpredictable, but he had no indication the Senator plans to be in town in the near future. In response to a question from us he said he does not expect the Director to be called on by the Chairman for a briefing before 15 February, but this could always change.

25X1 8. [] Jim Woolsey, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, said he would like to be brought up-to-date by means of a "strategic briefing" some time this month (other than a Friday) and added he would be willing to come to Headquarters to avoid asking our people to make a special trip to the Hill. I told him I would check with our people and set something up on this shortly.

25X1 2. [] Talked to Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, who said that Chairman Lucien Nedzi, Intelligence Operations Subcommittee, had left him a message about setting up a hearing on the intelligence community. I explained that Nedzi had told us that he did not wish to hear further from the Agency, since this had been fully taken care of during his Headquarters visit. I said Nedzi had told me Friday that he wanted to get someone from the National Security Council staff and a witness from the Defense Department. This apparently surprised Slatinshek who had understood Nedzi wanted to have an Agency witness. Slatinshek asked who from the NSC staff would be a qualified witness. I said I didn't know of anyone on the NSC staff itself who followed intelligence community matters as a primary responsibility and felt that Gerard Burke, Executive Secretary of PFIAB would be a more knowledgeable spokesman from the White House point of view.

I told Slatinshek that since we had covered the community problem rather fully during Nedzi's visit to Headquarters, we would like to cover the same ground with Slatinshek at his convenience and we agreed that he, Tom Parrott and I would meet in his office at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow for this purpose.

25X1 3. [] Lunched with John Goldsmith, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, who said Seymour Hersh of the New York Times had called on him to get material about the Agency. Goldsmith said he had been unresponsive, but Hersh indicated he was engaged in an ambitious project putting the whole intelligence community under critical scrutiny. 25X1A

25X1 4. [] Tried to reach J. Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, concerning his inquiry about [] but Sourwine 25X1A [] was not expected in his office until late in the day, if at all. I told his secretary I would catch him in the next day or two.

25X1 5. [] In response to his call, picked up some documents from Jack Norpel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, 25X1A for delivery to [] Security.
